NAVY YARD. - General Eppa Hunton has written a letter to Joseph Hopkins, c.q., member of Council from the 1st Ward, in this city. in reply to one from that gentleman, in regard t the possibility of the removal of the Navy Yard from Washington to A exandria. Gen era Hunton advises that Council take action on the subj et. It is probable that Mr. Hop kins will, at the next meeting of Council, in treduce resolutions in regard to the matter. It is understood to be a se t'ed fact that the presen Navy Yard, at Washington, will either be removed to some other point, or else be abol ished. The shallowness of the water, and the tiru us channel, by which it is approached, two longed rendered the Washington Navy Yard comparatively useless for vessels of any . The advantages of our city, with its commodious harbor, a depth of water sufficient to that the largest sized ships, and its ease of acess render it peculiarly suitable for the locano of the yard. Besides these advantages, the comparatively small trouble and expense of removing the machinery, &c., from Wast ington here, and our proximity to the seat of g vernment would be additional arguments in javor of our claim. It is hoped that Council may act promptly in this matter, and use all means at its disposal to accomplish the locanon of the yard at this city.

LOCAL LEGISLATION .- In the Virginia State Senate on Wednesday, Mr. Finney, from the Committee on County, City and Town Organizitiens, reported a bill to amend section 8 of an act entitled an act to amend the charter of the city of Alexandria, approved February 20, 1871, and providing for submitting the same to the qualified voters of said city; which was subs quently taken up and passed under a suspension of the rules.

On the same day, as stated in yesterday's 6.z te, Mr. Critcher, from the Committee on Reads &c., reported Senate bill to amend an act entitled an act to incorporate a company to construct, on the plan of James S. French, a rairoad between Alexandria and Washington en, passed February 27, 1854; which was subsequently taken up and passed.

see meandering up King street this morning. They were a man and his wife, the latter bearing in her arms a baby. They were evidently of the genus tramp, and had strapped about their persons numerous pots, pans and cups, and seemed equipped for a long tramp. The soiled and ragged appearance of the couple, and their odd collection of cooking utensils made them the observed of all observers.

THE BELKNAP BRIBE.

Formal Impeachment of W. W. Belknap, late Secretary of War. WASHINGTON, March 3.-The formal proseedings to the case of the late Secretary Belk nap, in the United States Senate, took place to-day. Shortly before one o'clock Hon. Green Adams, assistant clerk of the House of Representatives, appeared at the door of the The Door-keeper-A message from the House of Representatives.

Mr. Adams then communicated the House resolution, passed yesterday, appointing a committee to impeach Mr. Belknap.

The resolution was then handed in. A pause occurred, during which Mr. Edmunds, who had the floor, continued his speech. At 1 o'clock precisely the front door of the Senate was opened to its full width.

The Door-keeper-"A committee of the House of Representatives."

The President of the Senate-"A committee of the House of Representatives."

The House committee, Mr. Clymer at the head, then advanced to the centre of the Senate, and M. C. reading from a roll, said :

"In the name of the House of Representatives, and of the people of the United States, I impeach W. W. Belknap of high crimes and misdemeanors in office," and he demanded, in the name of the House of Representatives, that the Senate should take order in the

The President of the Senate-"Mr. Chairman, the Senate will take order."

On motion of Mr. Elmunds and without debate the impeachment resolutions were reterred to a special committee of five.

The committee then retired and the Senate resumed its ordinary business.

The galleries were crowded in every part, many being unable to obtain admission. THE ORIGIN OF THE INVESTIGATION.

It is now understood that the terretting out of the bribery, which has caused the fall of Belkuap, was done by Lieut. Armes, who, subsequent to the late war, commanded for sometime at Fairfax C. H. Armes, with another officer, named R berson, were at Fort Sill when the Marsh business was arranged. They caused the facts so far as they knew them to be communicated to the President. In a short time afterwards they were dismissed from the army. Since then Belkuap has prevented the restoration of Armes, and the latter has been indefatigable in urging an investigation.
